

Remarks

In this amendment, there is no new matter. What have been amended are:

Drawing - Instead of being labeled by name, the drawing is now labeled as "Fig 1". And the different parts of the drawing are labeled as 1, 2 and 3.

Specification - When referring to the different parts of the drawing, the specification now uses the parenthetical numbers 1, 2 and 3. To avoid confusion, the purposes of the invention are now labeled as A, B and C.

Claim - Claim1 of the immediate prior version has been replaced by Claim2 of the current version.
